

Ms. Kesjana Halili (PhD) is currently Secretary General at the Institute of Statistics. Ms. Halili has a work experience of 14 years at the Ministry of Finance and Economy. During 2020 she held the position of the General Director of Public Debt and Foreign Aid Coordination. Before that for 6 years Ms. Halili held the position of the General Director of Harmonization Directorate of the Public Internal Financial Control and for 7 years she has been working in the General Directorate of Budget.

Ms. Halili has been teaching at the Faculty of Economy, University of Tirana since 2007. As part of her academic engagement she has published several papers and participated in a series of conferences and seminars.

Other professional experiences include engagements as a member of the National Accounting Council since 2014, member of the Registration Authority at the Institute of Certified Auditors of Albania since 2018, member of the Internal Audit Committee of NOA financial institution since 2018, etc.

Ms. Halili, respectively, in 2004 and 2006, has completed her Bachelor and Master's degree in Banking and Finance at the Eastern Mediterranean University, Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus. In 2016 she was awarded as a Doctor of Science at the Faculty of Economy, University of Tirana, with a focus of research on internal control systems in the public sector and the impact of internal audit on systems' effectiveness. Also, Ms. Halili has also earned the title of "Internal Auditor" as well as the professional title of the "Certified Accountant".