

Ms. Olsida Çapo graduated in Faculty of economics, University of Tirana, Business Administration. In 2013 has completed successfully master studies on resource management and career developing major.

Starting from 2005, Ms. Olsida Çapo has been part of Albanian Institute of Statistics and has served as Head of Unit of Short Term Statistics from 2013 to November 2020.

Ms. Çapo is specialised in economic and statistics analyses with an experience build while working in INSTAT and have good knowledge on project management, interaction with donors and other institutional stakeholders of the area.

From November 2020, Ms. Çapo holds the position of: Director in Economic Statistics Directory in INSTAT.

She is married and mother of two sons.